

Avery's Travel Adventures

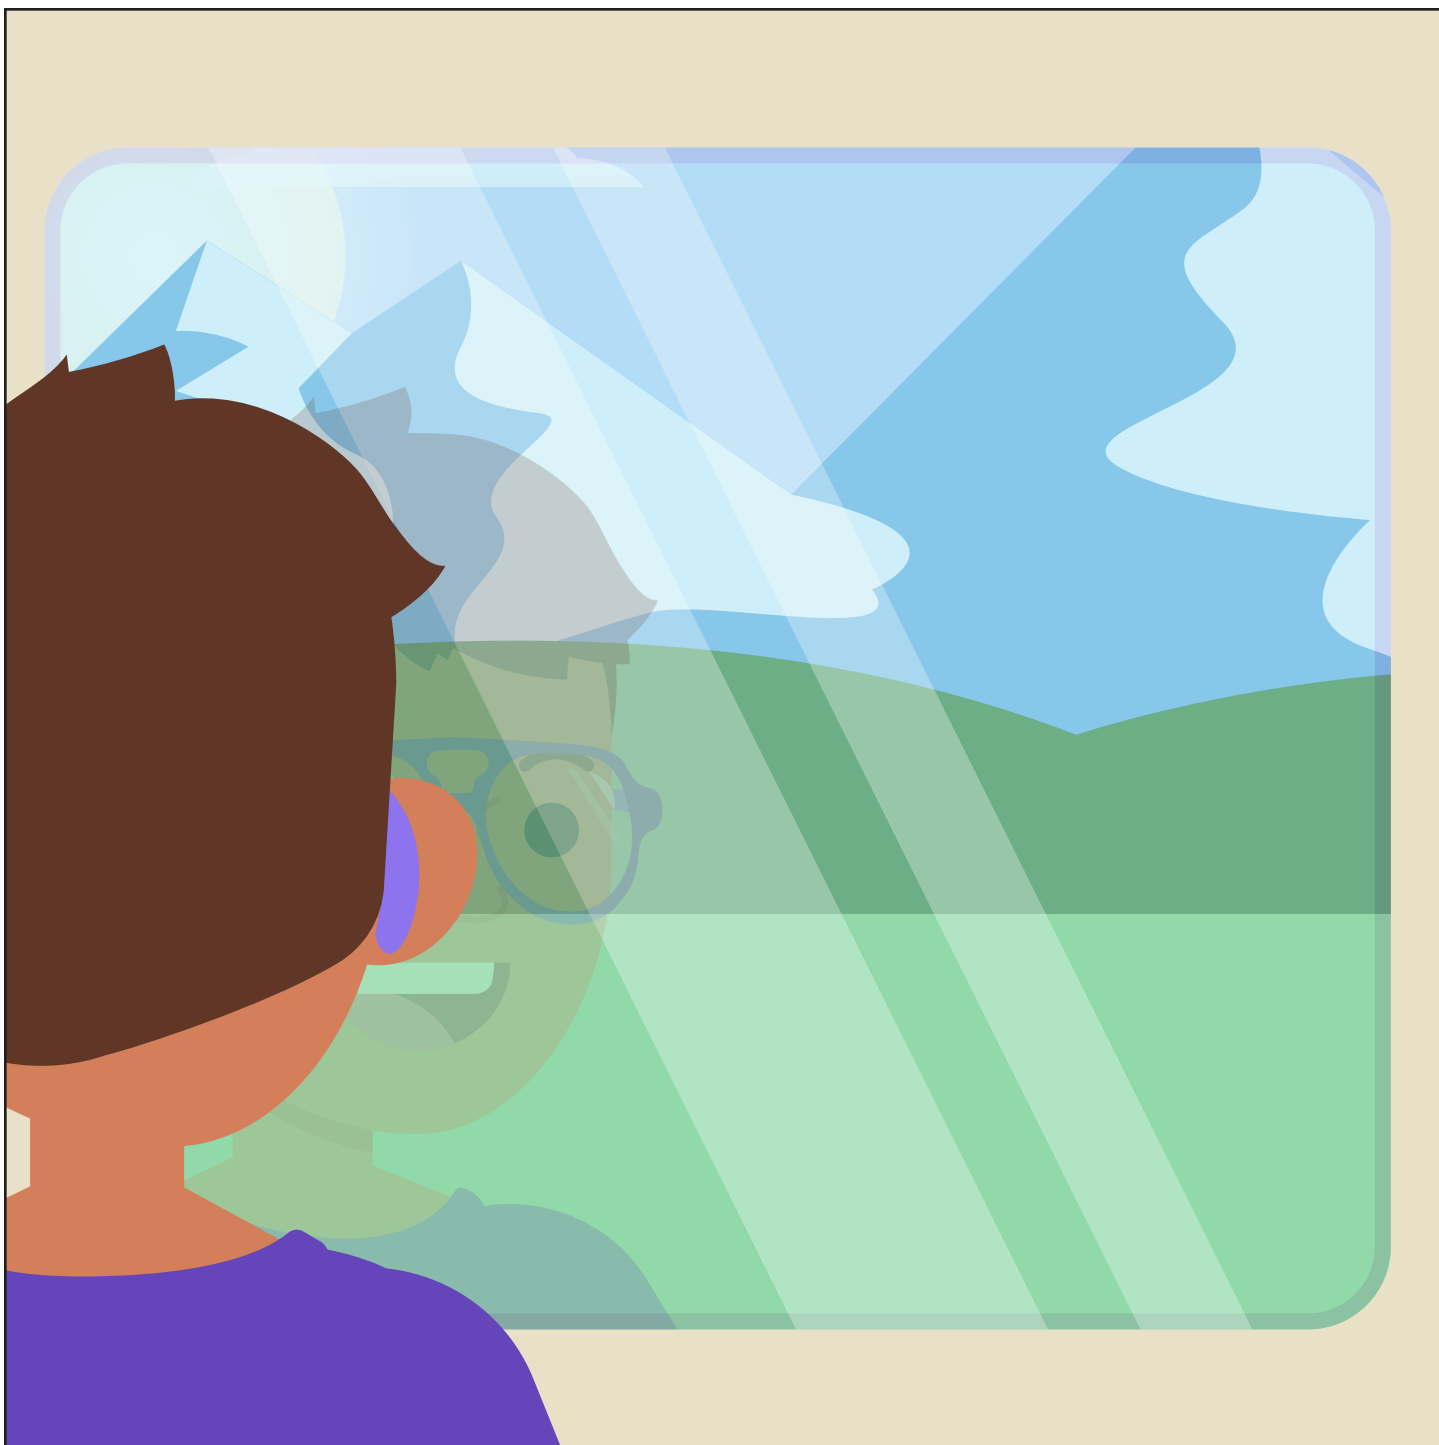

Avery loves to travel. Every season, Avery's family goes on a new adventure.

Last summer, Avery took a trip on a train to the mountains. Avery waited patiently at the train station. Before long, Avery heard, “Choo! Choo!” as the train arrived. Avery waved to the conductor and climbed aboard.

The train rolled along the tracks, past trees and hills. Soon, Avery arrived in the cool, quiet mountains.

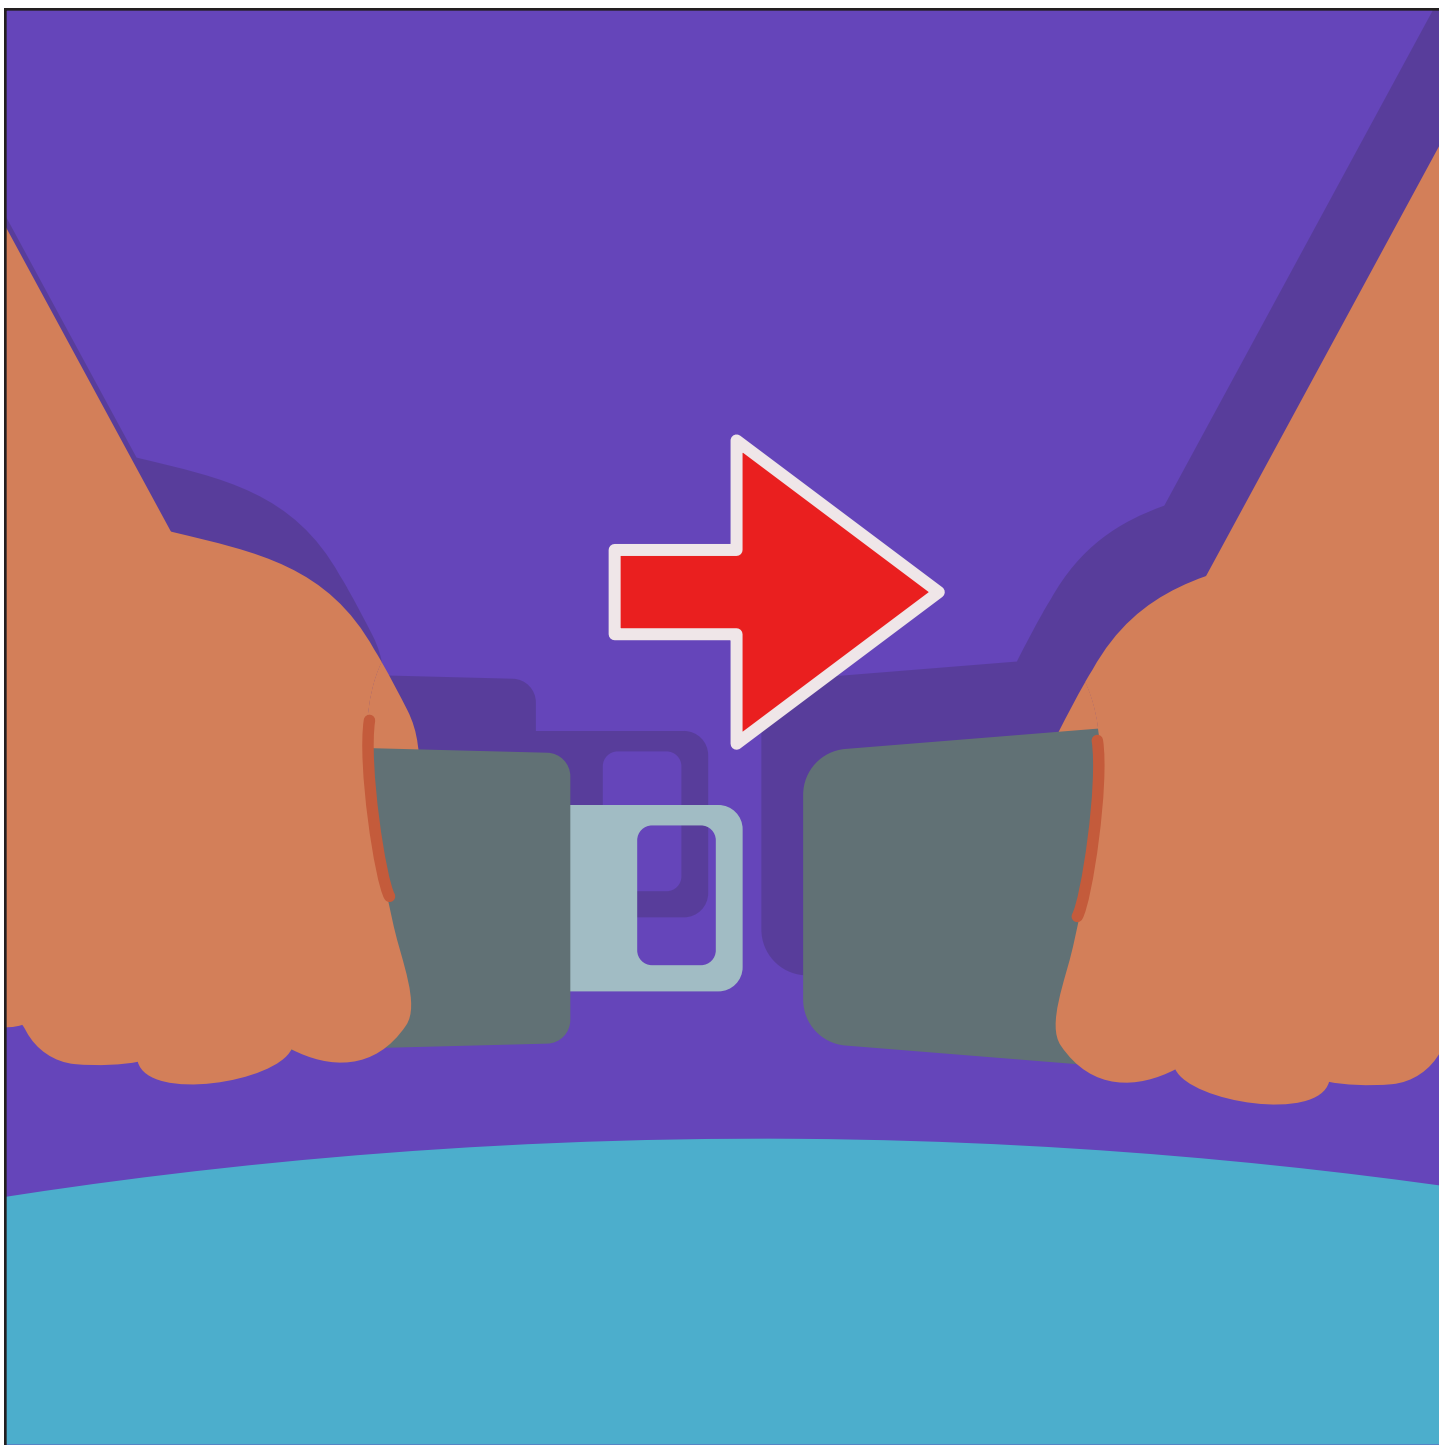

In spring, Avery wanted to visit a city far away. For that adventure, Avery traveled on a plane.

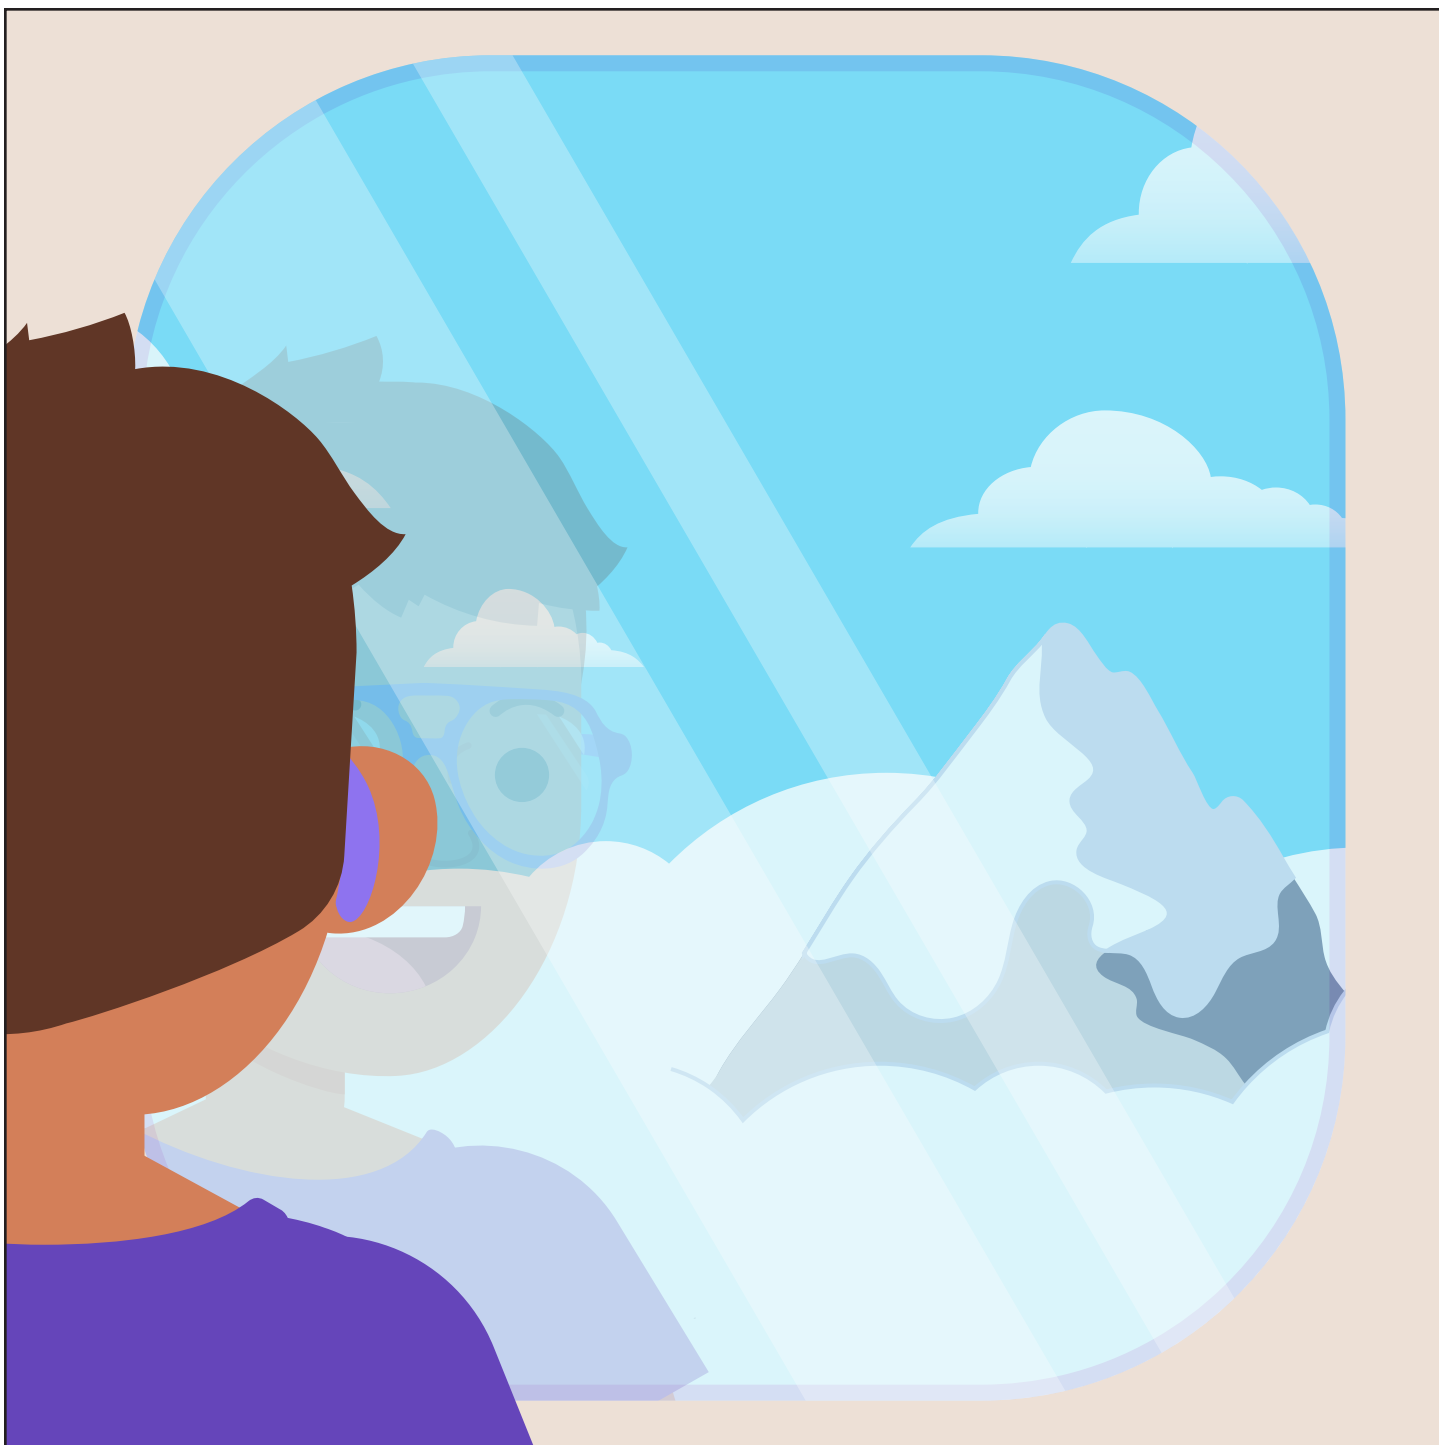

GATE A26

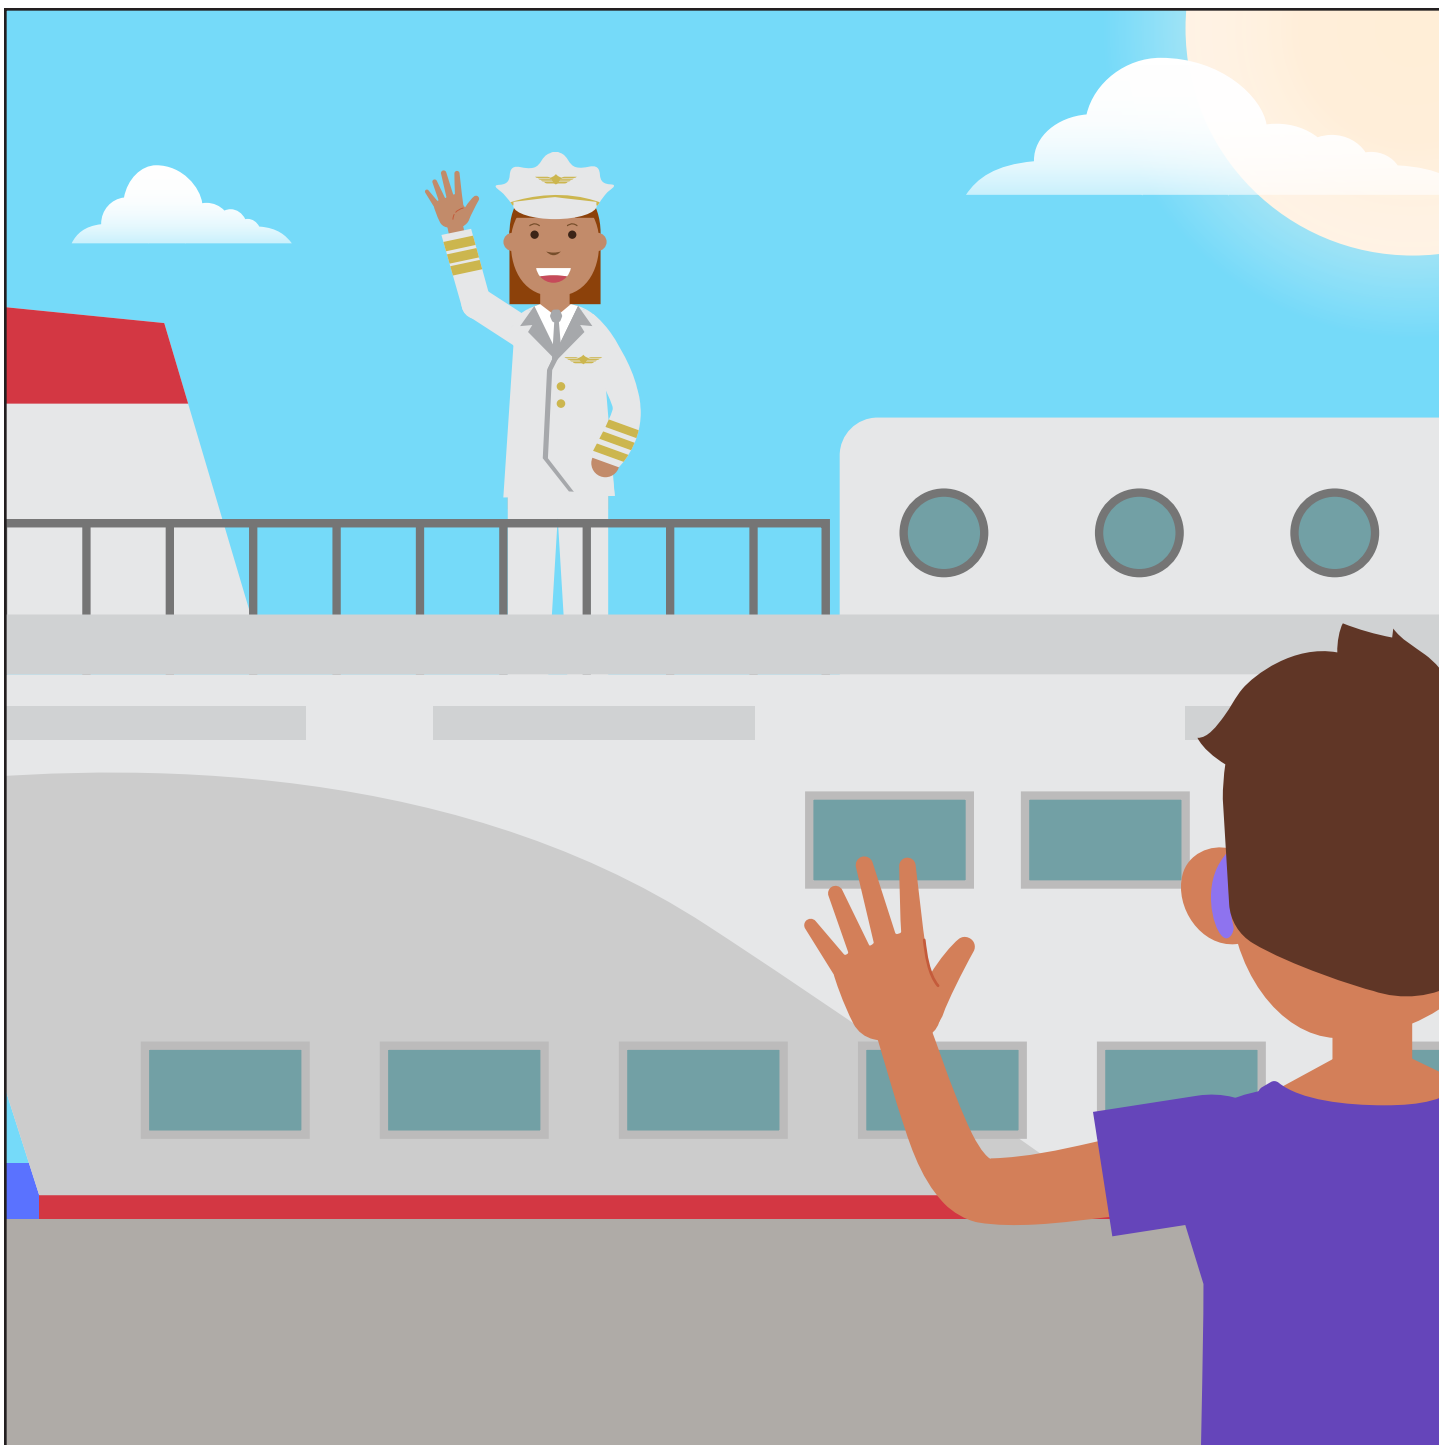

At the airport, Avery checked in, passed through security, and waited in line at the gate. Avery was excited to board the plane.

As Avery got on the plane, the friendly pilot greeted everyone. Avery settled into the seat, put on a seat belt, and waited for the plane to take off.

Soon, the plane soared into the bright sky. Avery looked out the window and watched the clouds until it was time to land in the new city.

In fall, Avery visited an island hotel. To get there, Avery went to the dock to board a ferry. Avery waved hello to the captain.

As the ferry moved across the water, Avery looked at the colorful fall leaves. The trip was smooth and relaxing.

Then, in winter, Avery decided to stay close to home. Avery took day trips to the nearby ski park with his family. To get there, they traveled in the family car.

Each season brings a new way to travel and a new place to explore!
Avery can't wait to travel to new places this year, too!

